CWDC

Collegiate Women's Development Cell

RRR – Recognize, Resist and Report

Introduction:

CWDC is established as per the UGC and the Gujarat University guidelines in 2010-11 for the benefits of students in our institution. In order to protect girls students from sexual and mental harassment, provide safety and security, personal liberty, individual growth and development, women empowerment, self-dignity and defense, CWDC is active for the rights and privileges of girls' students and female faculties.

By conducting workshops, counseling and lectures, CWDC enhances their talent, skill based knowledge and ability along with awareness of their basic fundamental rights. It facilitates empowerment and upliftment of girls' students and encourages gender equality.
